In connection with this transaction, ZEGA will cease operations as a registered investment adviser and resign as a sub-adviser for the Fund. Effective on or about May 27, 2025, the Fund's principal investment strategies will be updated. Under the new principal investment strategies, the Fund will seek to provide current income by maintaining long exposure to its reference index and selling a daily call option spread on that index. Each Fund will target a distribution yield of approximately 30%. This approach is designed to generate consistent income while more fully participating in the gains of the underlying index.
